St. Louise de Marillac is a Roman Catholic community called together as family to worship, to minister, and to evangelize. As true disciples of Jesus Christ, we are called to renew His love and spirit by sharing our time, talent and treasure.

St. Louise de Marillac Mission Statement

Pentecost—Time to Review our Role in Mission

Pentecost can be thought of as the birthday of the Church. We have just passed through the Easter Season pondering the mystery of the resurrection of our Lord. Today, we are given the gift of the Spirit which was promised to the disciples by Jesus.

In today's first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, we are treated to a whole host of biblical symbols, all which should seem familiar since they appear throughout the Old Testament.

First, there is the sound of a mighty wind from heaven filling the whole house. The word in Greek for 'spirit' and 'wind' is the same, so the wind clearly indicates the Spirit of God.

Then there appeared tongues of fire which rested on the head of each one present. We remember Moses speaking to God out of the bush which was on fire. When the Spirit descends on the Apostles, they are able to understand and speak all languages to bring the Good News to all. This is a reversal of the actions of God when the Israelites built the tower of Babel, and all spoke different languages and did not understand one another.

The Gospel today has a quite different account of the coming of the Spirit on the disciples. It is the evening of Easter Sunday and the disciples are in a room, with the doors firmly locked. Fear and anxiety is the prevailing mood among them.

All of a sudden, Jesus is there in their midst. "Shalom, Peace with you" is his greeting. Jesus had promised that he would bring peace, a very special kind of peace, to his disciples. A peace they could not get anywhere else and a peace that no one and nothing could take away from them.

After showing them the wounds on his side, hands and feet, he gives them their mission: "As the Father sent me, so am I sending you." Their mission is the same as his; they are to continue doing what he did.

Then he breathes on them and gives them a new life, making them a new creation, giving them the life of his Spirit, saying: "Receive the Holy Spirit." Then he goes on to say, "Those whose sins you forgive are forgiven..." The disciples are being given the authority to bring people back to God, to reconcile those who have become separated from their God.

This is ultimately the mission of the Church, to bring people to God. This was the mission given by Jesus to his disciples and the same mission has been given to each of us. So, as soon as a person becomes reconciled with God as Lord and Jesus as Savior, that person in turn accepts the obligation to become in turn a reconciler of others.

Pentecost Prayer

*Breathe in me O Holy Spirit
That my thoughts
May be holy;
Draw my heart
O Holy Spirit
that I love but
What is holy;
Strengthen me
O Holy Spirit
To defend that is holy;
Guard me then
O Holy Spirit
That I always
May be holy.*

Amen.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today we are at the fiftieth day of the Easter celebration: seven weeks of seven days, a week of weeks, now culminating in a festival fiftieth day. While the liturgical color of the Easter season is gold, on this last day we have red. For the first thousand years of the church, there were no firm rules for using colors.

Only wealthy churches could afford a full array of colors, and most places used the best vestments, no matter the color, for the greatest feasts. The Church spelled out an exact plan for color, including red for Pentecost, only in 1570, but local differences held on until the 1800s.

Color experts tell us that red is a hot color, best used for fast-paced, upbeat, active experiences. It is hard to be neutral before red, as any matador will tell you. It invites commitment, draws you in. It is a stimulating color, engaging the eye, stirring hunger. It is the most fitting color for this day when we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit into our lives, a dynamic presence overturning neutrality in favor of passion and commitment. Copyright © J. RECONCILED DIVERSITY

A few years ago, during Rome’s quiet summer, Pope Francis took a day off to visit privately with some old friends, whose identity took Catholic Italy by surprise: Evangelical Protestants. They welcomed Francis to their Pentecostal Church of Reconciliation, where Francis asked pardon for Catholic persecutions and celebrated the Holy Spirit’s “pentecostal work.”

Unlike Satan, declared Francis, who creates division among God’s children, the Holy Spirit creates a diversity rich and beautiful. And unity; not uniformity, Francis specified, but unity in diversity. Francis named the Spirit’s gift “reconciled diversity.” Pentecost’s rich treasury of scriptural readings, for Saturday’s vigil and Sunday’s morning liturgy, traces the Holy Spirit’s work from creation’s beginning, through Jesus’ resurrection, into the church’s earliest days, now into our days.

Kindled in our hearts, the Spirit’s gentle fire is ours to share generously, even with those most strikingly different from us. All hearts are Spirit-warmed by reconciled diversity.

COME TO US, SPIRIT OF HOLINESS

Holy Spirit,
 You banish fear from our hearts;
 You bear witness in us that we are children of God;
 We pray to you:
 Remove from our hearts the spirit of slaves;
 Place in us the spirit of adopted children
 To make us cry out, “Abba, Father!”

THIS WEEK’S HIGHLIGHTS
Priest Retirement Fund

“Bless those who bless you,” is the theme for the Los Angeles Archdiocesan Priest Retirement Fund. We are truly blessed by the men who have given their lives in service to thousands of families as a priest. As life begins to change in their later years, so too do their needs.

Together we are invited to join and bless those who have blessed us by making a meaningful gift to the Priest Retirement Fund. The collection is this weekend on Saturday, June 8th and Sunday, June 9th.

Have you ever wondered what happens to our priests after they retire from teaching, preaching, and serving on a regular basis? Where do they go? Who takes care of them? What do they need? Like us, they desire rest and have needs for care and medical treatment as they grow older. Unlike most of us, though, their modest salaries were never meant to provide for them after many years of service.

Your gift to the Archdiocesan Priest Retirement Fund is a meaningful investment and true blessing for the care and comfort of our spiritual fathers as they enter the later chapters in life. They deserve nothing less.

TOGETHER IN MISSION

It's a unique approach aimed at revitalizing Christian Marriage. This is a time for you and your spouse to be alone together. To rediscover each other and together focus on your relationship for an entire weekend. Every marriage deserves that kind of attention!

The next Marriage Encounter Weekend is: July 12th through July 14th in Azusa, California, Home 2 Suites by Hilton, 229 S. Azusa Avenue, 91702.

DID YOU KNOW?

Viewing pornography can put children in greater danger of abuse.

In a recent report on the role technology plays in sex trafficking, researchers discovered that the internet facilitated prostitution through online ads in 75% of cases. The average age of entry was 15. Pornography is a growing problem in our society, and it contributes a great deal to the real problems of sexual exploitation and trafficking that are happening closer to home than we may think. Pornography portrays sex as violent and degrading, particularly to women. Viewing these images can make children more vulnerable to sexual abuse, since they can have a distorted view of what is appropriate and what's not. For more information, check out the article "Internet, online porn seen as enabling sexual exploitation of children."

For more information on other ways to keep kids safe, contact Linda Filkins, the Parish Safeguard Committee Chairperson at (626) 214-7846 or the Archdiocesan Safeguard the Children Office at (213) 637-7227. For particular help, call the Victims Assistance Office at (213) 637-7650.
